I would like to open my first monthly report as your President by thanking the outgoing President, Steve Langley and his Committee members as well as the people who held non-committee positions for their tireless work in making this Club the great club that it is. As regular members you joined this club to come along for the social and often emotional support the fellowship provides. As individuals we will always bring our own personal slant to the contributions we make. Variety is the spice of life, after all! Anything we do, be it as a Committee Member or not, is with the best of intentions and for the betterment of the Club.

Since the AGM I have realised that I failed to thank on the day, those members who have lead activities at our rallies. You know who you are and if I try to name you all I'm bound to miss someone. Your time and dedication to these activities is greatly appreciated by the membership and is what contributes to the enjoyment of the rallies.

Having said all of this, it's time to reflect on the rally itself and it was certainly a busy one. We were blessed that the weather was kind to us when we needed it to be.

It was lovely to see Pat Barr as the instructor at card making on Thursday afternoon, giving Bev Green a break. Even our first time visitor, Donna embraced the experience even though she claimed she didn't have a creative bone in her body but was more than happy with her finished product.

Friday morning saw six ladies join me to make a therapeutic neck pillow, while there was lots of lively chatter and laughter from the table of crafty ladies with their assorted projects. In the afternoon 20 plus members headed to the Laidley Bowls Club for a social game of bowls with members only rolling back into the showgrounds in time for Happy Hour.

Saturday morning, we were treated to Hot Cross Buns with our cuppa before the start of a long morning of meetings. It was great to see Bob and Jeanette Chaffey as Convenor Ray's helpers for the morning. This was duly followed by the Saturday morning Forum, a lively General Meeting and finally the Club's AGM. Reports given and the new management committee dually elected and non-committee positions filled before we headed back to our vans for a quick lunch and then the afternoon activities commenced.

Congratulations to Bob & Kathy Kearney and Denis & Heather Edney on attaining 25 years membership of the Club.

Thanks to Barry and Wendy Gibson, ably assisted by Nicky Deluca, the ladies' disc bowls championships we held in bright sunshine. A tightly fought final was held between Sue Thorpe and Yvonne Robbins with the latter being the victor on the day. Well done, Yvonne! So lovely to see you competing, let alone winning, given your health struggles this past year.

The evening proved how little some of us really know about our own country as we competed at a very enjoyable Travelin' Australia Trivia Night hosted by Roger and Donna, Patrick and Carolyn. With the "Phone Police" in attendance, bribery unchallenged and some very loud participants the scores at the end of the night reflected our knowledge or lack of it.

Sunday Morning there was the usual queue to pay our debts to the treasurer before the morning forum after which all, but six trusty campers, headed home to prepare for our next rally in just two and a half weeks (shorter by the time you are reading this).

In closing, I trust you all have a blessed and safe Easter and we look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at Hillview Hall. If you have any suggestions or questions, please feel free to contact me either via email President.qcc@gmail.com or by phone 0407 640 993.

Until next time, Olive.

P.S. Please take the time to read all the information in this newsletter and check emails regularly. I cannot stress strongly enough.

COVID AWARENESS

COVID-19 is nothing new, but the FLiRT variants are, these are transmission timelines for FLiRT variants:

It can take 5 or more days to develop symptoms and you are contagious two days before the symptoms start.

Public health advice includes staying home while symptomatic to avoid a possible spread.

To limit the transmission of those droplets:
wearing masks in confined environments like public transport, washing your hands, as well as covering coughs or sneezes with your elbow.

Each time you cough or sneeze, those fluids are potentially spreading to somebody else.

BE AWARE - BE SAFE this winter season

HAPPY 76th BIRTHDAY

From Wendy Gibson Archivist

In May 2025 it's QCC's 76th birthday. So, in my birthday article this year I'll take a look at another important event in QCC's history of milestones.

In May 1949, the Caravan Club of Australia, Queensland Branch, was born. It was a loose bunch of people with like interests. In 1955, the Caravan Club of Australia, Queensland Branch, was renamed 'Queensland Caravan Club', separating itself from the New South Wales association. Then, in 1986/87, the Queensland Caravan Club became the 'Queensland Caravan Club Inc.' QCC was incorporated.

You may ask why we need incorporation. Yes, of course, a group of people can meet wherever without being incorporated, but with an organisation like ours, incorporation has distinct advantages. When incorporated, you can book a large number of people at a venue. Many organisations will not deal with a loose bunch of people who call themselves a club. Sites would be extremely difficult to book and we would probably have to lob up as individuals and just hope there was room for us all. Further, no loose bunch of people can book a hall; a single person would have to be financially responsible, and that is unfair.

Another important issue is that things that you don't want to happen, can happen. No insurance company would offer group indemnity insurance to a loose bunch of people. Unincorporated, we would have to obtain indemnity insurance for individuals, which would not only be very expensive, but as different people (sometimes not on committee) undertake different tasks, it would be impossible to take out a suitable short-term policy and so not everyone who should be covered would be. And how can that be fair?

QCC had rules, but for incorporation we needed a set of rules approved by the Queensland Justice Department. The Justice Department had a set of model rules and so we used these, filling out the blanks as appropriate. This was the simplest way to ensure the rules would be approved. So, our first rules, known within QCC as the "Model Rules", were approved by the Justice Department on 16 September 1986.

Anyhow, how did it all come about?

At QCC's Committee Meeting on 24 March 1986, incorporation of QCC was discussed. At this meeting Irene Cuthbert was voted in as nominee for incorporation, and a sub-committee of Irene Cuthbert, Mal Finlayson and Mal Dale was formed.

In 1986, General Meetings were part of the AGM. At QCC's AGM on 21 March 1986, Gwen Campbell-Stewart and Mal Dale spoke very strongly for QCC being incorporated, pointing out that any club member could be faced with civil action for damages and that individual club members could be made personally liable. After much discussion, the majority of members agreed that the club should proceed with investigating incorporation.

At the QCC committee meeting on 13 June 1986, the proposed application for incorporation had been displayed for general viewing and no comment had been received. It was agreed that Irene Cuthbert would act as the nominated member. It was also agreed that the Justice Department's model rules would be used and amended as little as possible so as to speed up the legal process.

On 19 September 1986, at QCC's committee meeting, it simply says that papers concerning the club's incorporation were to be prepared for lodgement.

QCC had received a Certificate of Incorporation of an Association No 2291 from the Justice Department and so a Special Committee meeting was convened on 20 January 1987 to discuss it. In accordance with requirements, the model rules, as approved by the Justice Department, must be accepted by QCC's members at a General Meeting.

Accordingly, at a Special General Meeting on 21 February 1987, the members voted unanimously to adopt the Model Rules as approved by the Queensland Justice Department.

So, the original Model Rules of QCC were approved by the Queensland Justice Department on 16 September 1986, but were approved by QCC's members on 21 February 1987. Seems rather back to front, doesn't it?

Since 1986/87, amendments to these rules have been made from time to time, approved by the Justice Department, or the Office of Fair Trading (replacing the Justice Department). In 2014 QCC Inc created its own set of rules, no longer called the "model rules", which were approved on 3 February 2014 by the Office of Fair Trading.

We should offer a vote of thanks to all those members of QCC who had the foresight to put together the incorporation of QCC in 1986/87.

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING INCORPORATION.

The application for incorporation has been accepted by the Queensland Justice's Department and the certificate dated January 13th 1987 has been received. The only duty now outstanding is for the model rules as approved by the Justice Department, to be accepted by a majority of the members at a general meeting.

Should any member wish further information regarding the rules, please have a talk to Mal Finlayson.

Sashiko at Hillview

Owing to the fact that our May Rally is a 'bush camp' at Hillview Hall, our sewing will be hand sewing in the form of Sashiko, Japanese stitching.

I will have 10 kits available at a cost of $10 each (here in Australia these retail for at least $20.00).

It will be first in first served and lucky dip on the design. For those of you who have done this before please bring your sashiko needle, if possible. The only other thing you need is a pair of scissors.

Phone or text me on 0407 640 993 to be added to the list.

Preference given to those attending the rally but names taken for the left overs, if any.

Thank you, Olive

SUNSHINE REPORT

Caring thoughts go out to all those who have endured the loss of a dear one, ill health, hospitalisation, surgery or misfortune our thoughts are with you.

Special thoughts are extended to Kevin Gower, Pam MacDonald & Margaret Hiller.

Over this past month we have had the passing of Corinne Forster, Merle Beresford and Ann Savage. Our thoughts are with you all and your families.

VALE - Ann Savage

Ann & Adrian Savage became members of the Queensland Caravan Club in 2013.

Ann always had a smile on her face; and will be sadly missed by all.

The QCC sends Adrian and family our condolences on their sad loss.
