The quaint rural village of Kenilworth welcomed 40 caravans and camper vans for our much moved July rally.

The weather was kind, for while the nights were cool the days were gloriously fine and clear. The camp grounds afforded us plenty of room even though it was the end of the mid-year school holidays.

Thursday - With most of the campers having arrived, the first activity of the rally was once more, Bev Green's card making.

At this rally Bev challenged the participants with, which for most of us was a new art form, creating a card with diamond dots. Each pre-printed card was adorned with numbers to which one applied a diamond dot bead no bigger than a pin head. The end result was glittering cards to mark Christmas in July.

Thursday evening saw a trusty 6 campers engaged in a game of cards in the canteen area of the hall. It was good to see soon to be inducted new members, Daisy and Willy Hinds along with first timer, Bob Palethorpe in attendance although I don't believe Willy was too happy about his fortunes on the night.

Friday - Friday morning was a hive of activity in the canteen area with the ladies from the 'Craft and Chat' taking up a number of tables, while at the same time six ladies worked away in sweat shop conditions (ha ha) busily making bags for the charity 'Bright Bags'. A big thank you goes to Bev Green for the donation of fabric and tape and to Yvonne Robbins for fabric. In total the group completed 40 bags with another 30 only needing to have handles attached post rally.

The middle of the day saw the Management Committee have their monthly meeting. This meeting finished promptly to allow some members to attend an afternoon of lawn bowls at the Kenilworth Bowls Club.

Twenty five members in total took part in the afternoon's social game and donated $125.00 to that club. The evening saw more QCC members descend on the bowls club with over 60 members returning for dinner.

The meals were of a high standard, very reasonably priced and served promptly. A good night was had by all and I believe Nicky came away with 2 meat trays, as well!

Saturday - Saturday commenced with a cuppa and a chat before the morning forum and the quarterly general meeting. Please note all forums will now commence at 9:00am. Sadly, this forum saw us once more start with one minute silence for members who had passed in the last month. During this time we took time to stop and reflect on the lives of long time member, Merv Kahler and newer member Leona Meacham who lost their respective battles with the big "C". May their memories sustain their family and friends at this sad time.

This forum saw Donna, oops Daisy, as she likes to be called, and Willy Hinds inducted as full members of QCC. Following this Dennis and Heather Edney were awarded their 200 rally badges and Kevin and Carol Day their 250 rally badges. Congratulations to all.

Following the forum and general meeting a large number of members car pooled it for a tag-a-long to the Obi Valley Woodworks to view the amazing talent of local woodworker, Jack Wilms. The gallery is set on a ridge in the Obi valley and the view alone was worth the trip. Jack's pieces were beautiful. He generously gave our members 'scraps' of cedar.

The afternoon had many pairs compete in the annual Horseshoe Pitching Competition. A big thank you must go to Ray Caddies, Barry and Wendy Gibson for their organisation of the event. A fiercely fought out battle for the trophy ensued between Sue and Jim Thorpe and Kevin and Carol Day. The victors on the day were Sue and Jim, who were presented with their trophies at the Sunday forum by Ray Caddies.

Saturday evening we lined up, like a scene from the movie Oliver, to receive our helping of the delicious soup from the QCC Soup Kitchen, returning to two long tables to be enjoyed amongst friends. The banter between the groups was heart-warming. A generous thank you goes to Gail Caddies, Margaret and Daryl Anderson and Greg Hamer for their hard work in the preparation and clean-up of the event, which all deemed a great success.

Sunday - Once more we gathered for a cuppa and a chat whilst paying our camp fees to our assistant treasurer, Margaret who was ably assisted by past treasurer and now Vice President, Kerry Hogan. No rally can be a success without the input of a large number of volunteers, be they the secretary for all the paperwork, rally marshals for parking us up, the activity group coordinators, the entertainment coordinator, the convenors and their assistants....and the list goes on. We are all grateful for your efforts.

Please check the whiteboards, daily, at the rally for the latest timetable of activities.

Going forward take time to reflect on our Club Motto of "Fellowship on Wheels", be kind to yourselves and those around you. Stay safe and take care of your health.

See you in Stanthorpe. Make sure to pack your winter woollies!

Olive Jones, President.

VALE—Merv (Mervyn) Kahler

In 2003, when the Queensland Caravan Club Inc. State Rally was to be held in Pittsworth, Merv was Minister (of Mischief) in the then Pittsworth Shire Council. Merv was very instrumental in getting our rally going, going out of his way to help.

Merv, even then, considered himself a member of QCC, finally joining in 2007.

At our 2009 Pittsworth State Rally Merv again excelled in getting lots of prizes, organised tours, drove the tour bus and organised local Country and Western Club to entertain us.

Even though Merv was only on the committee for one year his commitment to QCC was exemplary - an asset to our membership. Forever in our memory and forever missed from our midst.
